A RELIGIOUS AUTHOR'S STATEMENT.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with several bad kidney days and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained blood and mucus and passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually subsided and my urine gradually became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." F.

INCREASED COST OF LIVING RECEIVES A "SET-BACK."

The most vital question outside of food is clothes. It is a question that must be faced by man or woman at least once a year. How low are the times. Money that once was sufficient to pay all the weekly bills and have enough left over to save for clothing, is now not enough left to make it worth while putting in the bank. How, then are good clothes to be bought? Caesar Mischel, Milwaukee, put the question to the Cheerful Credit, clothing for the whole family. High qualities, the same as though cash were paid, can be secured for a very moderate income. Credit and the balance can be met in small weekly sums, regulated to suit personal convenience. The advance Spring showing at the store of Caesar Mischel, Milwaukee, shows all that is desirable in style and quality. Ladies' medium weight serges, fancy worsteds, cassimeres, etc. $12.75 and up. Men's Spring suits, coats and suits, 5 cuts and patterns that will be popular, $10.75 and up. Ladies' new Millinery-trimmed hats, in the very latest styles, $1.50 and up. Best clothing that is made especially for hard usage. Latest shoe lasts for every member of the family. If it is desired to give an Easter gift, the Cheerful Credit Clothing Department points the way. Complete Phonograph Outfits may be in every home. Cheerful Credit places necessities and luxuries within the reach of no matter how high the prices on living expenses have gone up.

THE U. S. GOVERNMENT in its "Pure Food Law" does not "indorse" or "warrant" any preparation, as some manufacturers in their advertisements would make it appear. In the case of medicines the law provides that certain drugs shall be mentioned on the labels, if they are sold in the preparation known as Ely's Cream Balm. The well-known family remedy for cold in the head, hay fever and nasal catarrh, doesn't contain a single injurious drug, so the makers have simply to print the fact that it complies fully with all the requirements of the law.

FUND FOR POLICE SICK BENEFIT

Two Good Stories—Rev. Mr. Rae—That Linen Towel—Personal Melange.

While in town Rev. Mr. Rae of Hartford told one or two very good stories. Naturally they were not given out in the chapel. Speaking of the English to appreciate an American joke he said: "An American was telling about a man who found him a linen towel in the sky scraper, when the building below was all in flames. Escape was cut off. The man dealt in all kinds of rubber goods and so he wound rubber hose about his body, rubber bags, rubber tubing, and a great many other rubber things until he had converted himself into a rubber ball of huge dimensions of which he was the core. Then he rolled to himself to the window and let fall until he struck the ground. The result

PROSPEROUS YEAR CLOSED WITH RE-ELECTION OF OFFICERS OF POLICE SICK BENEFIT ASSOCIATION.

The annual meeting of the Police Sick Benefit association which was held yesterday afternoon at headquarters, closing a prosperous year. The old board of officers were re-elected unanimously. They are: President, Capt. Alvin Hunt; v'ce-president, Sergeant C. W. W. secretary, Christopher Finnegan; treasurer, Supt. Eugene Birmingham. The board of trustees are: Capt. George Arnold, Lieut. John H. Redgate, Sergeant Smith, Doormen James Halpin, Willis N. Benham, and E. L. Ruggles. The balance of the fund is $307.72. A balance of $4,400 remains in the treasury to start the new year.

was he bounded up above the top of the building, and kept on bounding up and down for a week and nothing could stop him. Finally a policeman shot him to keep him from starving to death." A day or two after an English woman came to the American and said: "Do you think the policeman was justified in shooting that man to keep him from starving?"

Mrs. Rae has a fine collection of stories and anecdotes with which he ornaments his discourse. He spoke of a man from California who began to praise the country, as all such men do, and went into an extravagant statement regarding the size of the beets, onions, pears, apples, plums, oranges, etc., which grow in that wonderful land. "How do you account for it?" asked the gentleman from New York. "Oh," was the reply, "it is all a matter of climate." Then the New Yorker began to tell about the tall buildings in New York, some of which reach up to the clouds and over. "We have them fifty or sixty stories high," said the New Yorker. "How in the world do folks ever get to the top of them?" asked the man from the Golden State. "Oh," was the reply, "it is all a matter of climb it."

The crowds were so dense at the center Wednesday evening it was difficult for a lady with a fashionable hat to steer her way along Main St. The linen shower foretold a few days ago, fell a little sooner than was expected, owing to a sudden change in the weather. Miss H. Louise Fairchild was the victim, and those who pulled the string which set the shower in motion were remembered at the Embroidery club. The event took place at the home of Mrs. Harry L. Fairchild. The rooms were prettily decorated, there was a dainty refreshment, with candy in boxes and carnations. Time would fall to tell of all the dainty things which fell during the shower. Besides the Fairchilds mentioned, there were present Miss Marie Brown, Mrs. Walter Hubbell, Mrs. Robert Atherton, Mrs. Edgar Beardsley, Miss Susie C. Wilcox, Mrs. Howard Franklin, Mrs. Paul A. Carey.

There is said to be measles galore on Hixson's Heights. Up to dates 15 cases have been reported.

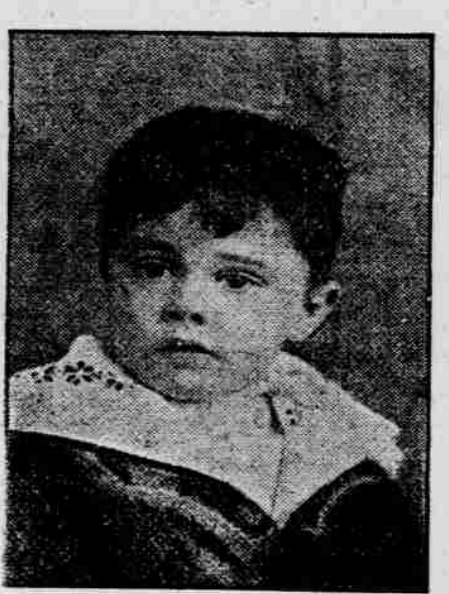

Postmaster William B. Bristol has made a brief visit to Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stagg will come home tomorrow from New Shore.

A case of intoxication was lately seen lying on the Shore road. Such cases are by no means uncommon.
